

Hi.

We're Crane Connectivity Solutions,
but you can call us CCS.

We want to revolutionize your relationship with technology.

We thought you might have some questions,
so allow us to introduce ourselves.

Crane /krān/ (n):

Short for Crane Co., 160 years of engineering excellence supported by more than 11,000 employees in 26 countries worldwide and a diverse business portfolio. You might recognize us from our relation to Crane Payment Innovations and Crane Merchandising Systems.

Connectivity / kă nek 'tivədə/ (n):

The power to bring devices to life and the force behind the Internet of Things; three simple steps to a better business:

1. Integrate sensory hardware into machines.
2. Connect hardware to networks to communicate machine data.
3. Use data to inform decision making, enhance business processes, and take action.

Solutions / sə 'tōSH(ə)nz/ (n):

Your biggest challenges, resolved.

Who we are

In short, CCS is a new joint venture that combines CPI's vending connectivity and CMS' Streamware teams. By joining forces, CCS is able to combine the robust capabilities of our existing portfolios with the agility of a tech startup. The result? Comprehensive technology solutions that extend beyond vending, and an unprecedented focus on the connectivity platforms that will transform our customers' businesses.
